Enjoy Korean Food in Outer Space!

Now you can enjoy traditional Korean food in outer space too! The Ministry of Education, Science, and Technology (교육과학기술부) has turned 4 kinds of Korean dishes into space food. They are bulgogi, bibimbap, seaweed soup, and mulberry drink. Space food is different with the food we eat on Earth. They must be cooked differently. It must also be tested to see if it will not turn bad in space. The nutrients in the food are very important, too. Finally, the foods must be approved by a science center in Russia. With luck, Korea was able to pass the final test. This makes Korea the third country to serve space food to astronauts next to America and Russia.

A dog is attacking a man.

Playing with animals is a lot of fun! But it's important to know how to be safe when you play with them. Animals can hurt you any time. Never touch strange animals. They may bite if you go near them. Don't bother your pet dog or cat when it is eating or sleeping. And don't pull your pet's tail or ears. If you make your pet angry, it may bite or scratch you. Play safe with animals!

Happy New Year!

February 14 is New Year's Day. It is a big holiday in Korea. We celebrate the day with our family and eat special foods.

On this day, all family members get together and eat rice cake soup. It is a traditional New Year's Day food. We believe that eating rice cake soup will bring us good luck. On New Year's Day, many children wear a Hanbok, the traditional dress of Korea. Then, they perform New Year's bows to their grandparents and parents. Family members also wish each other a happy new year. The year 2010 is the Year of the Tiger. Like the tiger, let's stay strong and healthy in 2010!

Staff reporter Liz Ahn

I Love Wearing Hanbok!

When I was little, I had a pretty pink Hanbok. I used to wear it once a year on New Year's Day. I really loved wearing it. It made me feel very special. I felt like I was a princess! I often showed off my pretty Hanbok to my American friends. "Wow! Your dress is very beautiful!" they said. Some friends thought I was a princess from Korea! I was very proud of my Hanbok. I still believe that Hanbok is the most beautiful dress in the world!
